Course Description/Overview: Placement in this vocal ensemble requires an audition. Crew612 meets daily for rehearsals. Performances are presented quarterly throughout the year, which include concerts, contests, cabarets, and other community functions. Students will study a variety of contemporary musical styles including jazz, pop, gospel, and show choir literature. A vocal arranging and piano chord chart-reading unit are essential components of course. Sight-reading, small ensemble experiences, and vocal pedagogy are embedded throughout the year. Spring NYC trip is an opportunity available to all 11th and 12th grader singers.

Required Materials: Uniform Fee (Cost is TBA)

Quarterly Summative Assessments: Total percentage of grade: 75%

-Performance (time and dates on the back side of this form) (30%)

*Excused Absence Alternative Research Paper

- One reflection for each performance (5%)
