

Girls' Fall Tennis Tournament Opens

Doubles will be played in the girls' tennis tournament for the first time this fall. Singles will be played by grades while there are no restrictions for doubles. The contestants may enter either the doubles or singles contests.

The winner of the singles contest will play Phyllis Trostle for school championship. Phyllis Trostle was winner of last year's tournament. Jane Crooks, assisted by Annabelle Juhl, is in charge of the tournament.